

Dhanesh:

Shipra, I can't believe how hard that C programming exam was! It was brutal.

Shipra:

Really? What happened? Was it that bad?

Dhanesh:

Yes! Even the seniors who took it before said it was way harder than their exams. And the faculty—oh my god—they were shocked. Some of the questions were completely out of the syllabus. I don't know how I'm going to pass.

Shipra:

Oh no! That sounds awful. But I'm sure you did your best. The teachers probably didn't expect it to be that tough either.

Dhanesh:

Exactly. I was so prepared, but when I saw those questions, my mind just went blank.

Shipra:

Well, while you were struggling with that exam, guess what happened to me?

Dhanesh:

What?

Shipra:

I slipped down the stairs! In front of everyone. It was so embarrassing!

Dhanesh:

Oh no! Are you okay? That's terrible.

Shipra:

Yeah, I'm fine, just a bruised ego. But the way everyone looked at me as I tumbled down... I just wanted the ground to swallow me up!

Dhanesh:

At least you gave them something to talk about. I guess we're both having rough days, huh?

Shipra:

Yeah, it seems like that! Let's just laugh it off and hope tomorrow's better.
